LB 79

PRESIDENT: Senator Savage did you wish to speak to this amendment?

SENATOR SAVAGE: Not to the amendment. As a courtesy to Senator Cope, I'd like to...as long as I'm recognized I'd like to yield 10 minutes of my time this afternoon when he comes back.

PRESIDENT: 10 minutes? On what particular...

SENATOR SAVAGE: On his bill, so he can enter the amendments that he wanted to. You told him he couldn't do that.

PRESIDENT: His 10 minutes were up.

SENATOR SAVAGE: I'm giving him 10 minutes of my time if that's possible.

PRESIDENT: You don't have 10 minutes.

SENATOR SAVAGE: How about 5, would that be...

PRESIDENT: Alright, do you want 5 minutes? You have 5 minutes, Senator Cope. Chair recognizes Senator Cope. Senator Savage has got 5 minutes, 4 now, that he's given to Senator Cope.

SENATOR COPE: Yes, in continuing before and I'll offer the amendments.

PRESIDENT: No, the matter before us is Senator Koch's amendment.

SENATOR COPE: What shall I do then? Shall I continue?

PRESIDENT: No, you must stay with Senator Koch's amendment.

SENATOR COPE: Fine, then I will approve of that amendment. I think it's a good one.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Senator Barnett.

SENATOR BARNETT: Mr. President, I want to talk on...I have an amendment, but I'm going to wait until Senator Cope's are adopted, so just make sure the name doesn't leave the list.

PRESIDENT: There are no guarantees in here. Senator Nichol.

SENATOR NICHOL: Mr. Chairman, members of the Legislature. I'd like to ask Senator Cope a question, please.

PRESIDENT: Now, Senator Koch?

SENATOR NICHOL: Senator Cope.

PRESIDENT: On the Koch amendment to the Cope bill.

SENATOR NICHOL: Wherever he has to pluck the information from it's OK with me.

PRESIDENT: Senator Cope, could you respond to the Koch amendment for Senator Nichol?
